

AMERICAN WOMEN IN UNIFORM

The figures presented on this page show American women in the uniforms authorized for their various types of war work. Never before in the history of the country have women played such important parts on the war front and the home front and enlisted in such numbers as today. This wholesale volunteering for war work releases large numbers of men for the actual business of fighting.

Member of the WAC--Woman's Army Corps.

Member of the WAVES--(Women's Reserve of the Naval Reserve)

Member of Women's Auxiliary Ferrying Squadron (WAFS)

Member of American Women's Voluntary Services.

Red Cross Worker

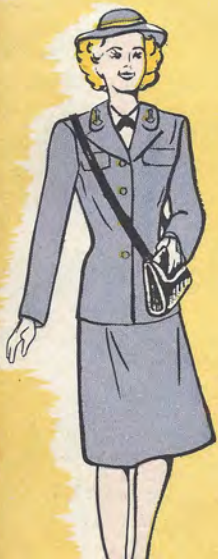

Army Nurse

Navy Nurse

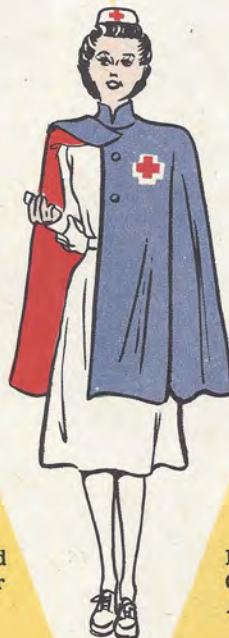

Civilian defense worker.

SP4P

Member of Red Cross Motor Corps.

Member of Red Cross Nurse's Aid Corps.

